

National Crime Victims' Rights Week • April 10–16, 2016

Serving Victims
Building Trust
Restoring Hope

Connecticut

National Crime Victims' Rights Week (NCVRW) 2016

Monday, April 11, 2016- NCVRW on the Concourse

Visit us at the Legislative Office Building! Tables will be set up offering information regarding the different services available to crime victims in the state of CT!

Monday, April 11th – Friday, April 15th

Participating agencies:

CT Coalition Against Domestic Violence

Hartford Communities that Care

Mothers United Against Violence

Office of The Victim Advocate

Office of Victim Services

Survivors of Homicide

The Alliance to End Sexual Violence (formerly CONNSACS)

Wednesday, April 13, 2016 - NCVRW Public Hearing

The Office of The Victim Advocate and The Ruth Boyea Women's Center invite you to a Crime Victims' Rights Public Hearing. This hearing is being held to evaluate the state of victims' rights and services in CT.

Saturday, April 16, 2016 - 2nd Annual 5k Run & Unity Walk

The Office of The Victim Advocate is hosting its 2nd Annual 5k Run and Unity Walk at The Bushnell Park in Hartford, CT.

For more information contact The Office of The Victim Advocate
860-550-6632 - www.ct.gov/ova